

Ten Minute Play Contest

ENTRY FORM

Eastern Front Theatre is pleased to announce that the 2018 edition of the Ten Minute Play Contest will be presented in part thanks to sponsorship from Theatre Nova Scotia and PARC.

WHO CAN ENTER:

This year's 15th annual playwriting competition, open to all Nova Scotia high school students in grades 10 through 12.

SUBMIT YOUR SCRIPT:

High school students are being asked to submit scripts using the following guidelines:

- Scripts should be no longer than 10 pages
- Plays should take no longer than ten minutes to read
- Scripts must have a minimum of 2 and a maximum of 4 characters
- Scripts should be able to be read without the use of set or props.
- Submissions by mail must be postmarked no later than May 11, 2018 or may be dropped off at Eastern Front's offices by 5pm on the same day

AND

- All scripts must include somewhere the line of dialogue "Such things are often spoken about in whispers, but I think it's important to talk about it right here, in front of everyone "

JUDGING

A panel of professional theatre artists will choose four scripts from the entries.

The four selected students will then be invited to watch as a director and team of professional theatre artists workshop each script. This will be followed by a staged reading of each show on May 27th at 12:00pm, Scotiabank Theatre, a special event part of Eastern Front Theatre's Stages Theatre Festival.

PRIZES

The winning playwright will receive a cash award of $300.00, ($300 prize sponsored by Theatre Nova Scotia). All staged playwrights receive complimentary student memberships to Theatre Nova Scotia and Playwrights Atlantic Resource Centre courtesy of Theatre Nova Scotia, and the three runners-up will each receive cash awards of $150.00 courtesy of Eastern Front Theatre.
