

Eastern Front Theatre Announces New Playwrights Unit

Call for Applicants

Halifax, NS – Eastern Front Theatre is pleased to announce the establishment of a new Playwrights Unit; a professional support network for Nova Scotian playwrights.

The Eastern Front Theatre Playwrights Unit is designed to support playwrights on an ongoing basis as they develop individual projects.

Six writers will be selected to form the inaugural Unit. The Unit will meet monthly and provide an environment where writers feel comfortable sharing their work and where the solitary nature of writing may be mitigated by communal gatherings.

Eastern Front Theatre invites Nova Scotian Playwrights who wish to be considered for the Playwrights Unit to submit an application to the Playwrights Unit Coordinator, Michael McPhee. For further information, please visit www.easternfronttheatre.com.

Applications should include:

Two copies of:

- A brief resume or bio
- A one page outline of the project you plan to work on over the next twelve months
- A sample of up to ten pages of the script in progress

Applications will be accepted by mail only and must be received or postmarked by November 1, 2010. Please mail to:

Michael McPhee

Coordinator

EFT Playwrights Unit

P.O. Box 11

Dartmouth, NS

B2Y 3Y2